++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain and showers spreading southwards, occasionally heavy later in Tayside.

Today:
Dry start with best of limited brightness in the Central Belt. Showery rain feeding from the north during the morning, reaching all by mid-day. Some heavier outbreaks across Tayside during the afternoon, but only well scattered showers reach Central Belt. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
A showery evening and night. Outbreaks relatively isolated in Central Belt, quite frequent, heavy at times in northern Tayside. Light winds turning north to northeast and freshening across the coasts. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy and showery. Fresh northeast winds focusing bulk of the showers across the north and east, where they turn heavy at times. Best of limited brightness in far west. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
North to northeast flow continuing to feed showers across the area, with the bulk of outbreaks focused across eastern and northern parts.
